CONTRACTS AWARDED

Huge Project Will Build Up Fleet And Place In Jobs Thousands Of Men

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(UP)—The navy department launched the greatest ship building program in history today awarding contracts for the construction of 22 vessels in private yards and allotting construction of 10 additional ships to government shops.

Secretary of Navy Swanson announced that all government navy yards would be placed on a 40-hour, five-day week beginning August 6. The new schedule will replace the present five and a half day week with its six day pay. Under the new set-up navy yard workers will receive pay for only five days.

Swanson's order which went to the commanders of all navy yards follows:

"Pending decisions for adjusting navy yard work to shipbuilders code the available funds necessitate discontinuance of the present five and a half day work week basis with six days pay. Therefore during this transitory period instructions issued on June 1 establishing a five day work week will become effective at all navy yards and naval stations Sunday, August 6. Further instructions will be issued as soon as decisions are reached to the application of the code."

Thousands Get Jobs
The huge ship construction program, financed by a $238,000,000 public works allotment was designed for the double purpose of building the United States fleet up to within 204,000 tons of London treaty limits and putting thousands of men at work in the nation's ship yards.

DAUGHTER IS BORN TO SCREEN COUPLE

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 3.—(UP)—John Gilbert, screen lover and former husband of Leatrice Joy and Ina Claire, and his present wife, Virginia Bruce, were receiving congratulations today on the birth of a daughter.

The child, yet unnamed, was born to Mrs. Gilbert at Cedars of Lebanon hospital last night. The baby weighed 7 pounds 4 ounces.

KIDNAPED N. Y. MAN IS GIVEN RELEASE

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—(UP)—Nat Baskowitz, known in sporting circles as Nat Bass, returned to his home today after being released by kidnappers who had held him since Monday night. Police understood no ransom was paid, although $35,000 was demanded.

A deal whereby the kidnappers would be paid $2000 within a few days was reported to have been made, but neither Baskowitz nor his brother, Arkie, would comment.

CONFESSION OF YOUTH CHECKED BY S.D. POLICE

Jar Containing Parts Of Body Of Slain Boy Is Sought In Bay

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Aug. 3.—(UP)—Somewhere on the floor of San Diego bay is said to be a glass jar containing parts of the body of seven-year-old Dalbert Anoshian, slain two weeks ago.

If that jar can be found by navy divers, it will definitely prove that Phillip Edwards, 19-year-old high school youth, murdered and mutilated the child, as he has confessed he did. Chief of Detectives Harry Kelly declared today.

Edwards, apprehended in Los Angeles yesterday, readily admitted the atrocious deed, and evidence accumulated by detectives appeared today to bear out his story. He was charged with suspicion of murder.

Calmly smoking cigarettes, the youth related how he found Dalbert wandering along the street last July 13, and accompanied him about the city, occasionally buying him hot dogs and candy.

Clerks in several stores have positively identified Edwards as the youth who was with Dalbert that day, detectives said.

Early in the evening, Edwards told detectives, he and Dalbert boarded a street car and rode out University avenue to the hills, where he said he "beat Dalbert to death" with a stone-filled sack.

Detectives found the stones and other evidence in the exact spot the high school youth indicated.

Then Edwards, according to his story, returned to San Diego, procured a knife, stole a car and returned to the hills, where he said he found the child still alive, but unconscious, and beat him again with rocks.

Then, he said, he placed the body in the automobile and drove down along the bay-front where he dissected it, clothed it again and cast it into the water.

The child's ears, Edwards asserted, were placed in a glass jar with a heavy spike and also thrown into the bay.

Navy divers were to attempt to recover the jar at the spot indicated by Edwards today.

INDUSTRIAL PEACE SEEN BY STRIKERS

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 3.—(UP)—Strike ridden Pennsylvania looked forward to industrial peace today following General Hugh Johnson's intervention to settle the coal strike.

The national recovery administrator demanded that petty grievances be set aside. His orders brought tangible results immediately. A conference to settle the strike of 45,000 bituminous miners was under way at Washington.

The administrator's dramatic warning that "God help the man or woman who stands against the drive for recovery" made in his speech here yesterday was being repeated throughout the state.

Early temperatures were five degrees under the corresponding marks for yesterday when a peak of 95 degrees was reached. Cooling breezes prevailed and the weather bureau predicted the temperature would not reach 90, a mark surpassed on 5 consecutive days for only the second time in history.

Fair Code for Lawn Mowing Industry Asked

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(UP)—In deadly earnest, 16-year old Wirt Atmar, jr., has written to Gen. Hugh S. Johnson demanding a code of fair competition for the lawn mowing industry.

"I live in the heart of east Texas," said Wirt. "The weather in east Texas makes it permissible for the grass to grow all the year, thus making me stay a few feet behind a lawnmower."

Wirt told the general that grass cutters deserved shorter hours and "especially a salary, which we do not receive at present, because our employers (our parents) have not given the matter any consideration."

CAMPAIGNS TO BEAT BOLTING SOLONS START

Hiram Johnson, LaFollette, Cutting, Put On Spot By G. O. P. Regulars

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(UP)—Regular Republicans in three states are organizing to punish Progressive Republican senators who bolted the Hoover-Curtis ticket in 1932.

The regulars' strategy is to break the back of the senate Progressive group if possible by a primary election offensive against Senators Johnson, Repp, Cal. Cutting, Repp, N. M. and LaFollette, Repp, Wis. All three must stand for re-election next year. They campaigned a year ago for Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Their efforts were reflected in victory for the Democratic national ticket in California, New Mexico and Wisconsin. They were not the only bolters, but they are the ones who come up for re-election first.

Regular Republicans in all three states are depending largely upon a backwash of the 1932 Democratic tidal wave to submerge the three Progressive musketeers.

JESSE L. LASKY IN BANKRUPTCY PLEA

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 3.—(UP)—Jesse L. Lasky, pioneer film producer, whose early day company became the huge Paramount-Publix organization, today had sought the bankruptcy courts for relief from pressing claims.

A debtor's petition was on file in Federal court seeking extension of time for him to meet debts of $2,020,024. The film magnate, who recently has been producing independently for Fox Film Corp., said his assets were only $134,718, including $72,500 in real estate, $24,717 in insurance policies and three imported automobiles he valued at $550.

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Cal., Aug. 3.—(UP)—Gilbert Beesmyer, Los Angeles convict, is working "every day" in the prison commissary here, Warden James B. Holohan said today.

"Beesmyer has not been off the prison reservation since he came here, despite reports to the contrary," Holohan said through his secretary.

"Several times in the past year we've received reports that Beesmyer was seen outside the prison. They're not true. We have him here and we'll keep him here until his sentence is served."

Druggan, confined in the prison received such favors as being allowed to "visit a woman friend" in the city of Leavenworth, the department said.

The investigation, conducted by an agent of the bureau of prisons disclosed the department said that Druggan constantly had sought "exemptions and privileges" but that most of his requests sent to the bureau had been denied.

FEDERAL BOARD IS CREATED TO HELP RECOVERY

Nearly Quarter Of Million Voluntary Agreements Reported Signed

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(UP)—Reports to the national recovery administration today showed a grand total of more than 233,000 voluntary re-employment agreements.

Late totals from various cities and states include:

San Francisco: 49,202 agreements received.

Nevada and Utah, 2000.

San Diego, Calif., 2055.

Detroit, Mich., 11,106 agreements.

St. Louis, Mo., 16,323 for the state.

New York, 16,289.

Philadelphia, 1685 agreements signed yesterday, including Curtis Publishing company with reported $500,000 annual increase in pay-rolls.

Portland, Ore., 1703 agreements signed.

Agency Created
Creation of a unified federal statistical agency to help guide national recovery and chart future economic planning was revealed today.

The agency will be known as the central statistical board. It was created by an executive order of President Roosevelt.

Its establishment is another step in the effort toward making the United States a balanced economic unit, held together on a prosperous basis by stabilized production and consumption.

One of its long range results may be, if the necessity arises, an allocation of production under which industries could be regulated in a manner similar to the present cotton crop curtailment program.

The central statistical board will be an immediate aid to the nation.

PIER FIRE BLAZE IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—(UP)—Firemen worked on land and water today to check a stubborn pier fire here before it reached five large ships, lying directly in the path of the flames.

The fire was checked within 50 feet of the largest vessel, in drydock at the Bethlehem Shipbuilding corporation yards.

Although several serious fires in the same district have been attributed to incendiaries, Fire Chief Charles Brennan said the pier fire was accidental. It started from a spark from a nearby engine and spread to piles of lumber. Damage was estimated at $10,000.

The ships in the drydock included the Alvarado, the Point Ancha of the Pacific Mail line; the Matsonia and the Maui of the Matson line; and the H. M. Storey, a Standard Oil boat.

Budget Will Be Reduced By $109,000

May Be Completed And Presented To Council At Meeting On Monday

REDUCTION of the tax rate in Santa Ana by at least five cents was foreseen today when it was learned from reliable sources that the budget for the coming year will be set at about $461,000, a decrease of $109,000 from last year.

The city council is making final revisions on the document and will have it ready for approval in the next few days. The report of Alfred H. Campion, tax research expert from the California Taxpayers association, has been carefully checked and many of his recommendations are being incorporated in the budget.

Heads of municipal departments voutarily reduced their expenses in the budget estimates to make the $109,000 saving possible. It also was learned, Campion's report and the tentative budget were virtually the same although individual amounts varied in several instances.

The tax expert based his calculations on the practices of other cities in the state.

Although definite valuations on assessed property have not been announced by the county auditor, pending earthquake adjustments, it is estimated that Santa Ana's total will approximate $17,000,000, a reduction of about $3,000,000 from last year.

This drop, combined with the slashes in budget expenses, will make it possible to reduce the tax rate from $1.35 to about $1.75, it was declared.

The final budget may be presented for approval at the council meeting Monday, provided the changes can be made by Saturday.

City Auditor Lloyd Banks will require two days to draft the new document and fix the tax rate.

Salary reductions put into effect on July 1 will lower the budget about $40,000 and set the total for salaries at $220,000, about 47 per cent of the total city expense. There are several changes yet to be made in personnel and office workers, it was indicated by the council.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH VERDICT RETURNED

BREMERHAVEN, Germany, Aug. 3.—(UP)—A verdict of accidental death was returned today by a court which investigated the shooting of Karl Werner Heye, 34, of New York and Rochester, by his best friend, Charles Manger, Stanford University student, aboard the liner Bremen.

The commission, composed of representatives of the criminal police and state's attorney's office and a firearms expert, boarded the Bremen as soon as it docked and examined the circumstances of the shooting in the millionaire's cabin Sunday morning.

The principal witness was Captain Wilhelm Dahne, first officer. In its verdict the commission said there could be no possible consideration of manslaughter or murder.

Mrs. King will be sentenced tomorrow.

GOVERNOR AGAINST ANOTHER SESSION

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 3.—(UP)—Governor Rolph today was on record against the calling of a special session of the legislature.

Answering reports that a special session was likely in the immediate future to consider further proposals to balance the state budget, Rolph said:

"I have no intention of calling the legislature back in session. If they couldn't do the job from January to July, why call them now?"

GOVERNMENT WILL PUBLISH LIST OF FAIR PRICES ON LIFE NECESSITIES WEEKLY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(UP)—Weekly lists of fair prices for necessities of life will be published by the government to protect the public from possible profiteering, it was announced today.

The administration recognized that higher commodity prices, processing taxes and higher wages under the recovery program will increase the cost of goods to the consumer. But it is determined to prevent gouging that would nullify the benefits of increased buying power.

Arrangements for the weekly price lists were announced by Frederic C. Howe, consumers' counsel of the agricultural adjustment administration. The figures will be compiled by the AAA with the aid of the agriculture department's economic bureau and the bureau of labor statistics.

The special bulletins will show not only what a fair price should be, but will indicate how much of the higher prices go back to farmers and the laborers who produce the finished goods.

At first the figures will be confined to bread, milk, meat and other foodstuffs. Clothing and textile goods will be taken in later.

The data will be gathered from 50 cities and from more than 1000 independent, chain and specialty stores. Factors to be shown in their relation to the price, according to Howe, will include:

The amount the farmer receives for producing the raw materials that go into the finished goods.

The amount labor receives as a result of the increased wages under the industrial program.

The amount farmers are obliged to pay for the goods they must buy.

These calculations will give an indication of the progress of the drive to increase purchasing power of farmers and laborers.

SISTER AIMEE TO MAKE TOUR IN VAUDEVILLE

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3.—(UP)—Sister Aimee will go on the stage, but not with her estranged husband, David L. (Iron Man) Hutton, Jr.

The board of elders of Angelus temple, where Aimee Sempie McPherson Hutton is pastory, voted their approval of a plan for a series of personal appearances by her in the largest theaters of the land in an executive session last night.

There will be no crooning and kaleidoscope lights playing upon the evangelist.

Her tour will be primarily to spread the "Four Square" gospel according to Mrs. McPherson-Hutton's plans.

Even while the elders were nodding in approval as they listened to her program last night, Hutton, sometimes known as "Dimpled Dave," more recently called "Ducking Dave," because he was the target for thrown eggs, was singing songs of his own composition in a Hollywood theater, and "wise cracking" about the theatricals of Angelus temple.

Aimee revealed upon her arrival in Baltimore from Paris that she had been offered large sums of money to make personal appearances throughout the country.

AUTHOR CONVICTED AS BLACKMAILER

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—(UP)—Mrs. Frances W. King, who wrote a book and attempted to get Bruce Barton, prominent advertising man and author to pay $50,000 to keep it from being published, was convicted in general sessions court today of blackmail.

Judge Joseph E. Corrigan congratulated the jury.

"I am told there has not been a conviction for blackmail in New York county for 10 years, and I hope your verdict will have a strong tendency to prevent that crime from being as common in the future as it has been in the past," he said.

Mrs. King will be sentenced tomorrow.

STATE TO ASSIST COLLECTING TAXES

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 3.—(UP)—California merchants will be given every possible aid in devising means of passing the sales tax on to the consumer, Professor Roger Traynor, tax administrator for the State Board of Equalization, said today.

"The act provides that the tax must be collected from the consumer to the fullest extent possible," Traynor said.

"The method of collecting the tax from the consumer is a problem which rests primarily with the retailer. The board of equalization will render every assistance possible to the retailer in meeting this problem."

BRIDGES SWEEP AWAY

Hundreds of Head of Livestock Believed Drowned Under Wall Of Water

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 3.—(UP)—Denver's worst flood in history swept down upon the city today, endangering life and causing thousands of dollars damage as water swept over miles of the city territory.

Breaking of Castlewood dam, great irrigation project at the head waters of Cherry creek, following a cloudburst last night, sent a wall of water nearly 30 feet high down the creek, which winds through Denver's finest residential district and along the edge of the business district.

So far as could be learned, there was no loss of life in Denver proper. At small villages along the stream above this city telephone operators reported they feared that some farm houses had been swept away. Hundreds of head of livestock were believed drowned.

Bridges along the course of the stream were swept away or badly damaged. Along the edge of the downtown district three bridges were gone.

Water raced waist-deep through the streets of the wholesale business district in the southwest section of the city. The railroad yards were flooded and water stood in the union station.

Basements of hundreds of homes were flooded. Debris-laden water poured over carefully-kept lawns.

Police and firemen blocked dozens of streets and permitted no traffic over bridges across the creek.

The flood struck at about 6:15 a.m. However, the city had been warned some time before, and most danger spots had been evacuated.

Within a few moments the stream was turned from a mere trickle to a raging torrent, racing over the 20-foot banks of the creek.

Hundreds watched from nearby streets as the flood approached its crest.

Prompt action of the operators in warning residents along the stream was credited with saving many lives. Within an hour after the dam went out, about 3 a.m., High Payne, caretaker, reached a telephone and sent the warning into the threatened area.

Newspapers were rushed into the Denver residential district and aided police and firemen in broadcasting the word of the flood.

COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Aug. 3.—(UP)—Verdigris river bottom brakes today furnished a safe retreat for a bandit gang that commandeered the town of Weir, imprisoned 22 persons, carried away a bank safe and fled before a veritable army of pursuers.

national recovery administration. Statistics showing the extent of re-employment, amount of wages added to the payroll and other pertinent data will be collected in a far more thorough manner than is possible under existing arrangements.

The secretaries of labor, interior, agriculture and commerce, the governor of the federal reserve board and the national recovery administrator each will appoint one member of the board.

While the appointments have not been announced, the makeup of the board probably will be as follows:

NRA, Dr. Alexander Sachs; agriculture, Dr. Mordecai Ezekiel; interior, F. G. Tryon; commerce, William L. Austin; labor, J. Edgar Hoover; reserve board, Winfield Riedler.

The board will be a central statistical agency for which there has been no parallel in American history.

Statistics have been gathered by the various departments but they have not been correlated and the years of depression have accentuated the fact that there are no satisfactory statistics for a variety of important subjects, such as water and truck transportation, month to month fluctuations in wages and employment, consumers purchases, consumers credit, rental costs, weekly wholesale price changes and production statistics for articles which go into the home such as clothing, hardware, packaged and bulk foods.

With the objective of a production that more nearly balances the power to consumer, the board will be able to detect unfavorable trends much more quickly than under present arrangements. If the necessity develops for allocation of production, the board will have up-to-the-minute information which will show what industries should be curtailed.

The executive order provides also for representation of the board from the existing statistical bureaus of the government, bringing in the tariff commission, federal trade commission, farm credit administration, agricultural adjustment administration, federal relief administration, treasury department, interstate commerce commission and the commerce department's bureau of foreign and domestic commerce.

FLOOD WATERS RUSH DOWN ON DENVER TODAY

Telephone operators at every village along the stream began plugging in their lines to every threatened home.

Dawn found the creek banks lined with curious, frightened people, waiting the coming of the flood.

At 6:15 a United Press writer drove along the bank of the creek for a mile or two. The stream was almost dry, a mere trickle between its concrete retaining walls.

Flood Reaches City

Only minutes later, as the flood reached the city, it had become a raging torrent, running about its banks, sending streams of water into the streets, hurling heavy debris against the bridges along its course.

A heavy concrete bridge at a boulevard in the east edge of the city went out. Every footbridge along the stream was torn down. Railroads of other bridges were swept away, and authorities feared several more would go out.

At city jail, which flanks the stream at the edge of the business district, prisoners were removed from their cells as water poured into the lower floors of the building.

The city garage, the lower portion of the police station, a section of the public market, and many other nearby buildings were flooded, their occupants racing to higher ground as the flood rose.

Trunks of huge trees, boards, telephone poles, even occasionally the shattered roof of a building of some sort, were tossed along on the hurrying brown waters.

Observers estimated the water was traveling at a speed of about 25 miles an hour.

Flood Crest Reached

The crest of the flood was reached at about 8 a. m., although the stream receded only very slowly after that time.

Great sheets of mud were left on streets and lawns. Trunks of trees, packing boxes, debris of every kind, littered the streets. Street car traffic was stalled for hours. Hundreds of automobiles were mired. Power lines in many sections of the city failed. The beautiful sunken gardens maintained by the city in the parkings along the creek at various points were ruined.

How many thousand acre feet of water were released by breaking of the dam was not known. Hugh Payne, caretaker of the dam, saw the break occur. He rushed to a telephone at Castle Rock and spread the warning to Denver and the valley below.

the clinching evidence we need," Chief Kelley said.

The fact that Edwards so casually confessed to the murder caused police to doubt his story for many hours, but as evidence accumulated their doubt dissolved.

From a large group of cars, for instance, the youth pointed out one which he said he had stolen the night of the murder.

Records showed the car had been taken from the streets the same day and found abandoned a day later.

"It's all true," the youth told newspapermen. "I just went crazy, I guess."

He said he fled San Diego because he "couldn't sleep."

While he was first reported to have confessed to the murder of Hazel Bradshaw more than a year ago and to the killing of another five-year-old child, detectives now declare he made no such admissions.

Huge crowds gathered at the city jail when it became known Edwards was being questioned, but the crowd was orderly and made no attempts to molest him when he was taken to see his mother, Mrs. Helen Graham.

Rancher Is Sued By Pump Concern

The Pomona Pump company filed suit in superior court late yesterday against W. S. Anderson, rancher, for repossession of pump equipment sold to Anderson on October 8, 1932 and located on Anderson's 15-acre ranch.

In the event the equipment is not restored to the company, the complaint asks that judgment of $500 be granted, plus $470 for depreciation of the property, plus another $470 for use of the equipment, with $200 for attorney fees.

Additional features of the margin ruling provided that no margin shall be granted on stocks selling below $5 a share, or bonds selling at less than 10 per cent of their par value. The minimum margin on short commitments is 10 per cent.

Traders operating in pools or similar organizations were ordered to report by noon tomorrow the extent of their participation in the close of business yesterday, giving the number of shares involved and furnishing copies of written agreements.

Customers' men were barred from soliciting business from customers at their homes without written permission. In the future the committee on quotations and commissions must approve men employed as customers' men, and they must be paid a straight salary instead of commissions. The salary for cities of more than 400,000 was fixed at $50 a week, and $40 a week in smaller cities. Customers' men now employed will not be affected.

She was told she could "write her own ticket."

So, with an eye to further income for her church and its many worthy charities, she evolved a plan to carry the gospel to virgin fields and bring the Lord's work to people never before reached by the church.

Under present plans, she will begin her tour within a month. She will appear between regular theater performances, and no admission will be charged, she said.

Her meeting with the elders last night was quite dramatic. Overjoyed to have their leader back after a six-month illness, during which she submitted to the removal of superfluous flesh around the hips, the group offered prayers for the welfare of Sister Aimee, the temple, and at her special request, for David L. Hutton, Jr., the former "great-heart lover" of the evangelist.

Meanwhile, attorneys for both Aimee and Dave were waving the olive branch in an attempt to bring about an "amicable settlement" of the latter's divorce action. It was intimated that the dove of peace was hovering nearby, but details were not revealed.

Featured by varied entertainment numbers and a short talk on law enforcement by the Rev. Patrick J. O'Dowd, priest of St. Ann's Catholic church, Seal Beach, the monthly meeting of the Orange County Peace officers was held last night in the auditorium at Seal Beach.

Chief of Police J. R. Zoener of Seal Beach, presided. Jack Nadler, police commissioner of the beach city, was introduced. The entertainers included Jimmy M. McCardie, vocalist, accompanied by Mrs. J. # NEW COUNTY WATER DISTRICT ACT EFFECTIVE AUGUST 21; MAKE ELECTION PREPARATIONS

Machinery was put in motion today by County Clerk Joe Backs in preparation for the election of seven directors of the seven divisions of the Orange County Water district, created by the passing of the act by the recent legislature.

The act creating the district will be provided for write-in voting. The act creating the water district provided for importation of water, prevention of waste or exportation of water, reclamation and drainage control of storm or flood waters, and for constructing works and acquisition of property to carry out the provisions of the act.

The election will be similar to a general election, in that precincts will be established for voting. The seven divisions of the water district do not include Santa Ana or Anaheim.

Restrict Voting
Only those holding title to land in the districts or to assessable rights will be permitted to vote at any election under the act. Voters are allowed one vote for each $100 of assessed valuation or portion thereof, the data to be secured by the county clerk from the last assessment rolls. Where ownership is divided, voters will be entitled to as many votes as they own proportionately in land in the district. Where the owner is unknown, anyone who produces a certificate of title can vote, if it is presented five days prior to the election. Corporations or firms can vote by proxy.

In order to nominate persons for directors of the various divisions, a petition must be filed with the county clerk not less than 15 days and not more than 30 days before the date of the election. The petition must be signed by not less than 25 bonafide voters. Any number of candidates can be nominated and space on ballots

Eckles stated today that he stands solidly in favor of the administration's efforts toward improvement in the laborer's conditions. Like many others, he says he wonders where the money will come from to carry the added costs, but feels that it is the employer's duty to make the wage increases with faith that something will come up together with the proper cooperation.

ORGANIZATION TO BE EFFECTED ON WEDNESDAY

Santa Ana will be formed into a military organization at a special meeting of members of the National Recovery Administration, Santa Ana Division, called for Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock in the Masonic Temple, it was announced today by George A. Raymer, secretary of the chamber of commerce who has been named as commander of the division by Gen. Hugh Johnson.

Raymer today announced the appointment of Mrs. Alice N. Peterson as lieutenant-commander and at the same time announced the names of citizens who will become a part of the staff of officers to take charge of the recovery program in this city.

The general committee and officers will attempt to establish basic codes of fair competition, put the codes into action and see that they are maintained.

The organization plans are set up along military lines. Raymer said an essential element entering into the fight against the depression is to reduce the vast number of organizations that have been created because those creating them were not parts of existing organizations.

STATE MARKET OFFICIALS PAY VISIT TO S. A.

C. J. Carey, chief of the division of market enforcement of the state department of agriculture, with Wilson R. Woodburn, southern division supervisor, were in Santa Ana and Orange county today on official business.

At the invitation of R. D. Flaherty, Carey addressed the regular directors meeting of the Orange County Farm Bureau this morning in the courthouse annex.

He expressed gratitude for the state department to the local bureau for cooperation and assistance not only in the current work of the enforcement division, but in putting over new and vital amendments to the enforcing act, now in effect.

Official reports reflecting the work of the division were discussed and a warning was issued to growers, urging them to display the official blue card issued to field agents of all licensed dealers.

Carey pointed out that the produce dealers' act as amended through emergency legislation at the last session of the legislature, brings under regulation not only all commission merchants or consignment dealers, but also dealers or wholesale purchasers, a new classification, and brokers and field agents.

The main work of the division, he said, is the recovery of claims of growers against commission merchants or purchasers of farm products. The division maintains offices at 204 State Building, Los Angeles. Growers having claims, he declared, need go through no red tape, but need only write a letter giving full details of the transaction and enclosing the papers reflecting the deal. The division does not receive claims filed by collection agencies, but maintains the policy of receiving only such matters only directly from the grower. No charge

TOASTMASTERS GIVEN DOSE OF HECKLING

Expressing faith in the National Recovery Act and individually pledging cooperation, members of the Santa Ana Toastmasters club at the meeting last night responded to the invitation of Walter Sorenson of the Orange County Builders Exchange to furnish speakers for the latter body for specified talks on certain occasions.

"Hecklers' Night," instituted by Robert Speed, toastmaster for the evening, ushered in a tumultuous program in which the members who had prepared talks for the evening found themselves subjected to every form of interruption and embarrassment that the members could devise. Despite the handicaps, speakers managed to finish their talks, some responding with witty sallies to the remarks of the hecklers.

G. E. McKelvey, first to face the ordeal asserted that the general public is being high-pressed by salesmen and named two members of the club as culprits of this class. His humorous talk was well received.

Dixon Tubbs brought capsules containing live specimens of Australian ladybirds, descendants of those imported a number of years ago to combat the mealy bug. Rising above the babble of questions and interruptions, Tubbs told of the propagating of 100,000,000 of the insects and of the eventual control of mealy bugs by this means.

Merle Hall told of gold mining, dwelling particularly on the legal aspects of filing claims and recording. He exhibited specimens and legal documents and went into detail as to the process of staking and protecting claims and of rights guaranteed under the law.

Following on the general subject of gold, Paul Roberts introduced "Assaying" as his subject and, with specimens and some equipment, followed the process of determining the richness of ore.

Carson Smith, with "The New Deal" as his topic, found much difficulty in keeping his heckling hearers quiet enough to proceed, but with ready wit he met many of their efforts to disturb him and hurled figures and made assertions showing the effects of the depression on the income and wealth of the nation. He stated problems of the Roosevelt administration and recounted triumphs which have already characterized it.

Ralph Smedley, "father" of the club, had prepared "Saying Grace" as his subject. He pursued his talk despite efforts to confuse him and traced the custom from the days of savages through to the modern method.

Bert Layton, Nelson Visel and Ernest Layton, who had been on vacations which took them through many states and over much the same routes, gave brief descriptions of their tours. A. G. Green and Ralph C. Smedley were named as a committee on handling a speakers bureau.

"Jimmy Dolan" On At Fox West Coast

"The Life of Jimmy Dolan," starring Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., opens a two-day run at the Fox West Coast theater today.

The picture is the story of a prize fighter who made good because his chin was hard, but who almost lost everything because his heart was too soft.

The cast includes Loretta Young, as the girl in Dolan's life, and Alvin McMahen, whose wisecracks steal the show in many places.

Also on the screen will be a Terrytoon cartoon, "Down on the Levee," a Newman Travelogue, "Oberammergau," and a news reel.

INAUGURATE BRANCH P. O.

WELL-KNOWN DAIRYMAN IS SHOT BY WIFE

Family strife was blamed today for the shooting of John Goforth, 33, prominent Buena Park dairyman, who narrowly escaped death yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock when his wife, Mrs. Lora Goforth, shot him in the neck with a .22 shot from her home on Walnut street in Buena Park.

Mrs. Goforth, held in the county jail on investigation of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder, told sheriff's officers that she shot her husband after he abused her when she awakened him to ask permission to drive to Anaheim with Mrs. Lucille Brooks, her cousin, who lived with the family.

The dairyman is being held at the Orange County hospital on the same charge as his wife. The bullet was removed yesterday at the hospital. It had ranged across the shoulder and lodged in the back of his neck near the spine.

Conflicting Stories
The man and wife gave conflicting stories of the shooting at first but later agreed on the circumstances. Mrs. Goforth originally claimed that she was handing the rifle to her husband when it discharged accidentally but later admitted she tried to shoot him, officers said. He grabbed the barrel and deflected the bullet enough to avoid being shot in the neck, he said.

After Goforth was shot, he chased his wife with a nine-inch frying pan until she ran out of the house, it is reported. She attempted to drive away in the car but he pulled her out of the seat and took the keys, officers reported.

He was finally restrained by Mrs. Brooks and a neighbor and given first aid treatment for the wound.

Tears Up Letter
Mrs. Goforth had been accusing her husband of going with other women it was learned by officers, and had written a letter to a relative to that effect. When the letter was found on her person last night in the office of Sheriff Logan Jackson, she attempted to chew it up but enough of the pieces were saved to learn of the accusations.

Mrs. Goforth drove her husband to the Orange County hospital and was later quizzed by Deputy Sheriff L. H. Nicholson, who brought her to the jail. According to reports from the hospital, the husband declared that his wife had tried to kill him on two previous occasions but she denied the charge.

When the first report reached the sheriff's office from the Fullerton police department, it was understood that the shooting had taken place while the couple were driving near Buena Park. Sheriff Jackson and Deputy Sheriff John

MISSION SERVICES TO CLOSE TONIGHT

A novena, or nine days of prayer for the late padre of the Mission San Juan Capistrano, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. St. John O'Sullivan, will come to a close at the mission tonight. Requiem high mass was sung this morning, with Ramon Yorba, old-time resident of the district, conducting.

Preceding the prayer services the mission bells will be rung as in the days of old by Jesus Aguilera, a pioneer of the Capistrano section.

Pending appointment of a permanent pastor, the Franciscan fathers of San Luis Rey mission are conducting regular services at the mission Sundays and on special occasions. The Rev. Father Anthony O'Sullivan, brother of the late priest, an invalid, is taking care of clerical work at the mission. Appointment of a new priest for the mission will be made by the Most Rev. J. J. Cantwell, bishop of Los Angeles and San Diego. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. O'Sullivan passed away July 23 following a heart attack.

GINGER ROGERS IN NEW PICTURE HERE

"Professional Sweetheart," new-est Ginger Rogers' picture, and with an all-star cast, comes to the Broadway theater today to play the remainder of the week.

The cast includes Norman Foster, Zasu Pitts and Frank McHugh. The story concerns a country girl, who becomes a radio sensation. She is out to see the world, however, and her backers are afraid of scandal if she becomes the Broadway habitue she wants to be, so they hire a Kentucky mountaineer to make love to her.

The short subjects include a Charlie Chase comedy, "Now We'll Tell One"; a cartoon, "Fisherman's Holiday," successor to "Sea Devils," and a news reel.

A new German parachute for use over water routes enables the aviator to unhitch himself and to stay afloat with a life belt which inflates itself as soon as it touches the water.

Ryan rushed to Buena Park but the principals had left for the hospital. They investigated the house and brought back the Winchester rifle and frying pan as evidence.

STAFF OF NRA TOILS OVERTIME ON WORK CODE

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Register Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Some at least of those white collar workers about whom Gen. Johnson has been so much concerned aren't getting the benefit of the 40-hour week.

The workers in the general's own department, for instance, who have been fixing it so the rest of us won't have to stay on the job so long, frequently toil far into the night. Lights blaze from the Commerce building, which houses NRA, until midnight and later.

The general himself works as hard as anyone. Most key officials are at their desks from 8 or 9 in the morning until 7 or 8 at night. Visitors are so numerous and conferences so frequent that most can be accomplished in the twilight hours. So many of these officials return after dinner and may not get home until 3 or 4 in the morning.

And of course the executive must have his assistants, secretaries and stenographers around. The result is that a lot of lovely girls are becoming thin and pale. One slender little NRA blond has lost four pounds in two weeks, and its going to be a crime if she loses any more.

This goes on especially in NRA, the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, the Public Works Administration, the R. E. C. and other agencies actively promoting the New Deal. But it's also true of many regular departments and bureaus which are operating with new duties and curtailed staffs.

Frayed Nerves Common

Frayed nerves and dazed brains are common.

No one works harder or longer than Gen. Hugh Johnson. Up late the night before, he was "buggy-eyed"—as one of his aides described it—when he opened the oil hearings.

Johnson, after the first witness was through, called two separate witnesses and successively turned them off with the assertion that they were appearing in the wrong order. After whispered conferences with Legal Adviser Richberg and Deputy Administrator Simpson, Johnson realized that they had come on in the correct order. So he called them back to finish their speeches.

Sinclair Walks Out

One of the witnesses was Harry F. Sinclair, who looked older than in his appearance here during the oil scandals but still didn't seem to be missing any tricks.

Johnson, not realizing that the first speaker had presented the code, halted Sinclair after about two minutes and said he must wait until the code had been offered. Sinclair, confused, left the hall. When Johnson called for him again, someone else had to read the Sinclair statement.

Business of Being Tough

When an industrialist gets tough, Johnson still knows how to get together.

He called in representatives of the shipbuilders one night when an impasse had been reached on their code.

The shipbuilders found Joseph Franklin and John P. Frey, labor leaders representing the shipyard workers, waiting in Johnson's office.

What, they demanded, were those birds doing there? Johnson stuck out his chin and roared:

"You fellows have got a wrong idea in your heads. Now, get it out! This is a conference of shipbuilders, shipworkers and the government."

That was all—except that the shipbuilders accepted Johnson's demand for a 32-hour week in yards engaged on government construction and a 36-hour week elsewhere and on repairs. Labor had demanded a 30-hour week and the industry a 40-hour week.

LA HABRA, Aug. 3.—Mrs. Oscar Cook chaperoned a group of girls who spent the past week at the N. M. Launer cabin at Lake Arrowhead. Those in the party were Evelyn Willard, Norma Cook, Eunice and Ruthmarie Launer.

The Misses Pauline and Vivienne Brewster, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brewster of the La Habra Murphy-Coyote lease, left Tuesday morning for a vacation trip to Big Bear where they will join a group of friends.

CLAIM INMAN INFLUENCE IN HOUSE IS CUT

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Aug. 3.—(UP)—His caustic tongue and open antagonism to what he termed a "reactionary" senate, may have given Senator J. M. Inman some personal satisfaction during the fifteenth session, but it certainly made him enemies and vastly reduced his influence in the upper house.

Inman like Senators Herbert Jones and Chris Jepsen are liberals. But, unlike the others, Inman turned and fretted under the restraint of one of the most conservative senates in many years. Jones and Jepsen, et al., took their beatings philosophically. Inman flared up time and again, and unmercifully played the senate majority.

Hurla Charges

His infernal charges that many senators were influenced by utility lobbyists, his exposure of log rolling tactics, of "pork barrel" methods and vote trading aroused bitter resentment of stand-pat conservatives such as Senator Arthur Breed and Walter Duval. The Sacramento senator never "pulled his punch." He seized on every opportunity to flay his colleagues.

By the end of the session, Inman was more unpopular in the upper house. Many senators felt he was adopting a "holier than thou" attitude; also that persons "living in glass houses shouldn't throw stones."

Rolph Probe Hurt

Inman's leading part in the sensational investigation into the Rolph administration did him no good. While it's true the governor's charges against him were utterly disproved, still the mere fact the accusations were made injured him politically. The political cemetery is crammed with men who have been allegedly falsely accused, but who could not, nevertheless, live down the stigma of being charged.

Inman hopes next session the senate will be liberal. Then, perhaps, his day will come. But if it's another conservative body, his power in the upper house will be virtually zero.

APPREHEND PAIR WANTED FOR THEFT

Wanted in Los Angeles and Santa Ana for petty theft of feed, grain and honey, two men are being held in San Bernardino and will be brought here for trial after being tried on theft counts in San Bernardino.

The men gave names of M. L. Maltby and Richard Chuster when first taken in custody by Los Angeles sheriff's officers and transferred to San Bernardino for trial. Local authorities were seeking them under the names of Jimmie Maltby and Art Scriver, and also want a third man who operated here, Lewis A. Sorenson.

Two of the group defrauded the Santa Ana Mills by leaving a cheap watch as security for $14.25 of grain and feed. The same men secured $21 of feed from the Simpson Milling company of Garden Grove by another ruse. It was reported, and additional thefts were made in Tustin and Buena Park.

STUDENT DRIVER HITS LAMP POST

Teaching his wife to drive was a sad experience for F. H. Hald, 2220 North Main street, after he surveyed what remained of a street light standard on Santa Ana boulevard yesterday.

It seemed that Mrs. Hald was not duly familiar with the gadgets and levers that control an automobile so it was not altogether her fault that the balky car decided to rub noses with the street light. But it did, just the same, with a great clashing and rending.

Police advised Hald to go into conference with the city engineer about the street light. Her conscience advised Mrs. Hald to try driving out in the wide open spaces where lights are suspended over the street.

Benjamin Franklin's portrait in the White House was originally carried away from Franklin's home by Major Andre, who gave it to General Grey. Grey took it to England and Earl Grey, a descendant, sent it to President Theodore Roosevelt at the Executive Mansion.

A Message to the Citizens of Orange County and Santa Ana

Today finds reemployment for more than 350 men in the manufacture of sugar from beets grown in Orange County and surrounding territory.

Hundreds of other laborers are engaged in fields harvesting the crop or in transporting the beets to factory.

This activity will continue for approximately 100 days, during which time the factory operates the full twenty-four hours, thus comparing favorably in working hours with other industries, most of which operate only a portion of each day throughout the year.

Santa Ana or Orange County progresses only to the extent its varied industries progress. We feel that we are part of this development, and as such are deserving of your fullest support.

Our product, today, is the equal, in every respect, to any similar product sold by your merchant. It has been proven over and over again, a product you may, without fear, use in jells, jams, preserves, or general baking and table use.

Why not buy a home produced A-1 sugar and thus help your own community, in labor and purchasing power?

Don't just ask your grocer for SUGAR.

ASK for and GET "HOLLY" sugar!

Support of this nature will be reflected in greater returns to your farmers, and to the industry in your own back yard.

It's time for a New Deal!

Let's go!

MODERN MERRIWELL

The Yankees consigned a pitcher named Johnny Broaca to their Newark farm the other day for seasoning. But in some respects Johnny Broaca needs no seasoning at all. The story back of that is this:

One day last spring the veteran major leaguer, "Smoky Joe" Wood, looked over his crop of budding young pitchers at Yale. An important ball game with a picked team of town players led by Albie Booth was about to begin. Naturally Yale didn't want to be beaten by the "townies," so Coach Wood called over his star pitcher whose name happened to be Johnny Broaca.

"You work today, Johnny," said Coach Joe.

"PARDON ME, JOE"

But Johnny, who had pitched a game a few days before, had a different idea. "No, coach," replied Johnny, "I'm not going to ruin my arm for you, Yale or anybody else. I'm not going to pitch more than once a week."

"Either you pitch or turn in your uniform," snapped the coach. "You win the uniform," was Johnny Broaca's reply.

Forthwith Johnny Broaca walked off the playing field and finished in Chapter One what promised to be the story of a brilliant college baseball career.

ENTER THE VILLAIN

A scout for the Yankees happened to be the heavy villain behind the scenes. The scout had watched Johnny pitch several games and the two had met one dark night at the old mill near the crossroads. The scout unfolded the golden possibilities of a major league career.

Frank Merriwell probably would have poked the scout in the nose and would have gone back to the campus and pitched three double-headers in successive days for dear old Eli. But Johnny Broaca listened to the scout whose message was something like this:

"You go ahead and finish your school work, and when you're ready to come we're ready to take you. And take care of your arm. Don't pitch more than once a week. Don't work in wet weather."

Johnny Broaca may become one of the greatest pitchers the Yankees ever had. Or he may prove at Newark that he's only another minor leaguer, just as many other promising college pitchers have done.

Anyway, Johnny Broaca has decided what he wants.

RUTH NICHOLS TO SEEK NEW RECORD

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3.—(UP)—Ruth Nichols, Rye, N. Y., society girl, will attempt to set a new west-east speed record for women before midnight tonight.

Miss Nichols will fly a new low-wing Lockheed Orion monoplane owned by Asa Candler of Atlanta. The plane is capable of 220 miles an hour. The aviatrix said she planned to stop only at Wichita, Kan., but if her fuel runs short she will make stops at Amarillo, Tex., and St. Louis.

The present record for the west-east flight is 17 hours 7 minutes, held by Amelia Earhart Putnam.

OAKLAND BOXER DIES INSIDE RENO RING

RENO, Nev., Aug. 3.—(UP)—A blow on the neck in a bout here last night almost instantly killed Nick Krumlovich, 18, Oakland, Calif., boxer.

Johnny Blanchard, Reno youth engaging in his first professional fight, struck Krumlovich on the neck in the first round. The lad fell into the ropes.

Dr. Thomas Bath, county physician, performed an autopsy and said Krumlovich died of a fracture of the fifth vertebrae.

Blanchard was held by police pending a coroner's investigation of the death, and second in the same ring in recent weeks.

Blanchard wept at the police station. Krumlovich fought under the name of "Speed" Sparks of Seattle. He was also known as Abie Muller. He was said to have been a former amateur champion in Portland, Ore.

Santa Ana's Elks, first-half champions, were eliminated from the Santa Ana City league's second-half race at the Bowl last night.

Overwhelmingly defeated by Hoffman's Reformatory, 17-1, the B.P.O.E. team dropped into the second division while the Reformatory moved into the position of race favorite with their major test.

The Elks made a sorry showing against the Hoffman representatives. No less than six errors were charged to the champions who performed listlessly afield and were helpless in front of Les Pangle's inspired pitching. Herman of the Hoffman's got a homer, triple and single.

There will be no City league ball at the Bowl tonight but on Friday the Elks get a chance to redeem themselves against the First Nationals at 7 o'clock. Hoffman's draw M. E. South at 8.

STARS, OLIVE CLASH HERE

Tennis Aces To Gather Here

SET AUG. 21-27 DATES FOR BIG NET PLAY HERE

Santa Ana will be host to the leading tennis players of Southern California from Monday, August 21 to Sunday August 27, inclusive.

On those dates will be held the second Santa Ana Open tournament, sponsored annually by the Santa Ana Tennis club of which Gilmore Ward is president and John Cress secretary. Play will be conducted daily on the courts at Frances Willard junior high school, Ross and Fifteenth streets.

Competition will be held in six different events—men's singles and doubles, women's singles and mixed doubles, junior boys' singles and junior girls' singles.

Lester Steffen, nationally ranked star from Los Angeles, won the singles championship last year. He teamed with Rudy Bishop to take the mixed doubles crown and opponents, collided in an exhibition game at Riverside last night with Anaheim again successfully carrying the colors of the National league. The Valencia won, 5 to 2.

Anaheim scored three times in the first inning and twice more in the eighth when Max Moody unloaded a long homer. Riverside made one in the fifth, two in the sixth.

The score:

Team	R	H	E
Anaheim	5	11	2
Riverside	3	5	1

Batteries: Anaheim—Cogan, Higgins and Lemon, Wallin. Riverside—Parsons, Hunter, Burgess and Zilkraich.

cheduled August 15, the night they play the likewise unbeaten United Presbyterians.

The third and last undefeated club of the league, the First National bank, kept its record unblemished by waxing Spurgeon M. E. South, 7-3, in a preliminary to the Elks-Hoffman brush. The Bankers were outlit, two to one, but managed to group four of their safeties into the fifth inning for enough runs to win.

The Elks made a sorry showing against the Hoffman representatives. No less than six errors were charged to the champions who performed listlessly afield and were helpless in front of Les Pangle's inspired pitching. Herman of the Hoffman's got a homer, triple and single.

Pirates Fear Vaughan To Be Suspended

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Manager George Gibson of the Pittsburgh Pirates, today anxiously awaited action by John A. Heydler, president of the National league on the report of Umpire Magerkurth concerning yesterday's first fight between Floyd Vaughan, Pirate shortstop, and Bill Walker, St. Louis pitcher.

If Heydler decrees a suspension for the beating, the Pirates will be hard hit for Vaughan was playing a Floyd Vaughan stellar role in Pittsburgh's pennant fight. Tommy Thevenow will sub for Floyd if the shortstop is set down.

The play that brought about the Walker-Vaughan row occurred in the ninth inning when the Pirates trailed, 3 to 2. With Paul Waner on second, Vaughan grounded to Crawford at first base. Walker covered the bag and the base runner crashed into him. Walker aimed a punch and Vaughan returned it.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

-- News Behind the News --

WASHINGTON
By George Durne

RECOGNITION

The latest dope from sources with very much of an inside track in the Roosevelt administration has it that America is preparing to back into recognition of Soviet Russia.

Trade agreements will be the first step toward a final rejoining of the friendly hand, those in the know say.

Of course when you sit down and draw up articles with anybody that operation constitutes recognition in almost all the leagues there are. The catch comes in at this juncture.

There won't be any exchange of ambassadors for some time.

CHILD

Instead the White House is considering the idea of sending a commission to look the whole situation over.

If such a mission is dispatched don't be surprised if Richard Washburn Child is at the head of it. True he got an appointment from President Harding as ambassador to Italy. Also true that he supported Franklin D. Roosevelt in the last campaign.

Furthermore Child is quite sympathetic to letting Russia back into the Big Times.

President Roosevelt signed an executive order recently that didn't see the light of day. It's plenty important to what we lightly call "taxpayers."

In brief it gives Grand Marshal of the Forest Army Robert Fechner final and complete say about all expenditures for the Civilian Conservation Corps of $2,500 and more.

Heretofore—with the exception of those pesky toilet kits—the Quartermaster General's office has done the shopping for C.C.C.

Decision to focus final authority for equipment purchases on Fechner came as a result of incident rumblings just under the surface that Federal money was being wasted.

The National Whirligig learned and reported that nearly a quarter million canvas coats were bought at prices ranging from $3.10 to $3.25 whereas specifications for the regular Army at that time placed the maximum allowable at $2.45.

One of the next innovations the New Deal plans to present in Washington is a Federal salary adjuster.

The idea has been talked over at White House meetings of the Super-Advisory Council and seems to have clicked. Pirating of employees by various of the emergency organizations brought the matter up.

It seems that quite a lot of high-pressure gentlemen have come to town to shove temporarily at the government wheel. They've been used to efficiency in their own offices and expect it here. Consequently they shop around.

When a girl or man is found with particular recommendations she or he is bought over at a higher wage.

This is possible under existing conditions in the government establishment. Under the Economy Act and other previous laws Federal pay can't be increased during the depression period in the old departments. Also everybody working in them gets a 15 per cent sock in the nose.

Most of the emergency setups are free from these restrictions however. Thus it is easy for a man in NRA or the Tennessee Valley Authority—just to name two—to offer some crack stenographer or secretary or statistician now working in one of the regular departments $200 to $500 a year extra to jump.

This has been going on only in the $1800 to $3000 salary classes. But that's where the bulk of your taxes is spent so far as the payroll is concerned.

JOBLESS

After all these years of storm and strife Uncle Sam is about to get himself some accurate and comprehensive figures on unemployment.

They'll be ready in about a month. The Federal Emergency Relief Administration is preparing them under the guidance of Chief Statistician Cornington Gill. Such figures will be invaluable. The Labor and Commerce Departments and the American Federation of Labor have been estimating pretty closely but the forthcoming schedule is advertised to be without guesswork and carried out to the Nth degree.

Five thousand units covering every county in the country are furnishing the reports. They are to be broken down so one can tell how many are getting direct and indirect relief and exactly how many are out of work in any given locality.

MRS. ROOSEVELT

You're plumb crazy if you don't think Mrs. Roosevelt is just about the most democratic person you ever met.

Certainly you'd appreciate the fact if you could have seen her blue roadster parked in front of a local hotel the other day.

The First Lady—she prefers to be called The Nation's Hostess—had just left the White House to pick up her friend Lorena Hickok, former newspaper woman now doing road work for the Emergency Relief Administration.

HOMELESS

Prof. Ray Moley came back to Washington after last week-end in New York and couldn't find the New Wesley Heights house he had rented.

The Assistant Secretary of State had to put up in a hotel until next morning when he could get directions from Assistant Mullen. The house had been rented the Friday previous. Mullen found it. Moley dashed through the rooms a mile a minute and said okay.

He forgot to get the street number.

NOTES

One of the toughest jobs in the administration is held by Margaret Duffley, an Irish girl from Chicago who types confidential stuff in Postmaster General Farley's ante room.

They were short of space and had to put her there.

Despite interruptions every two minutes she smiles and hammers away. She must be known by sight to thousands now.

That many have been in looking for jobs. Politics being what it is those on the inside aren't getting much consideration in the matter of job placements.

Friends of Secretary of State Hull say he's been vainly seeking a minor diplomatic post for a particularly well qualified intimate for some months now.

The theory is if you have your own job don't bother about friends.

NEW YORK
By James McMullen

Don't worry about the dollar's recent rise. It has the official O. K. Professor Sprague's skilled hand is plotting our currency craft. New York leaders agree there is sound cause for temporarily abandoning our efforts to keep the dollar depressed.

Letting the dollar slide during the London Conference served a useful purpose. It kept inflation psychology going and moved prices up. But in some respects it outwore its welcome. It stimulated speculation more than it did business. Also prices were leaving purchasing power too far behind. These are adequate reasons for a breathing spell.

Don't overlook government financing this month either. A strong dollar during August will help no end to solve the Treasury's problems. And that's the second biggest chore the government faces for the near future.

The dollar will probably go some higher yet before we put the brakes on. Some Wall Streeters are talking about 3.65 to the pound. That's looking through a telescope but insiders would not be surprised if it reached 4.20 or even 4.00.

FINANCING

The best local bet on the August 15th financing is a ten or fifteen year issue around three and a quarter per cent. Nearly five hundred million dollars is needed for refunding purposes and four or five hundred million more will probably be tacked on for public works and other odds and ends. The fourth Liberty four and a quarters will not be called for conversion but holders will probably be offered a chance to exchange them at their own option.

With the dollar buoyant and the stock market tamed New York authorities are confident that a billion dollar issue at three and a quarter per cent can be swallowed like so much ice cream. The Federal Reserve Banks are still ready to answer an SOS if needed—but they won't be needed.

About a month ago some of the New York banks tried to work the ancient shell game on William Woodin. They told him he would have to pay five and a quarter per cent for his August money. He didn't take them seriously.

Trying to raise the ante on the government is an old Wall Street pastime. The banks do love their income and they still haven't learned that there is no green in Washington's eye.

BRITAIN

Our willingness to let the dollar rise suits our British friends just fine. Apparently we are playing in to their hands but really we're not. There will be plenty of chance to catch up on exports when our domestic situation is straightened out.

Informed New Yorkers say that Neville Chamberlain must have had his tongue in his cheek when he said the pound wasn't tied to any other currency. Coincidence does not explain its movement with the franc. The famous British stabilization fund is doing its stuff.

Keeping the franc and pound in line helps France stay on gold. If France goes off gold England don't collect her most recent French loan. Q.E.D. Once that loan is straightened out you will see the pound go places in a hurry.

LABOR

New York insiders say that Green, Richberg and other labor leaders are having a hard job keeping the radical elements in line. Many members of the Federation want to use NIRA as a vehicle for their closed shop ambitions. It will take snappy work to head off a labor war in some industries.

William Green's Federal unions—whereby the employees of a given plant can get a charter direct from the Federation—represent an attempt at compromise. Green wants to keep the peace until reemployment is in full swing. So does General Johnson. NRA will have little patience with either industrial or labor elements which try to capitalize the situation for the benefit of open or closed shop policies. It is understood here that the White House itself is ready to swing a club if either side gets out of hand.

CARD PARTY AUG. 7

OCEANVIEW, Aug. 3.—Another of the card parties sponsored by the Unemployed association of Oceanview for the purpose of supplying gasoline for the commissary truck is being given next Monday evening. Mrs. Fred Hill will act as hostess for the evening. The public is invited.

CUBA

New York learns that the Cuban impasse is near solution. President Machado may withdraw neatly by taking a leave of absence. A new electoral law is expected to become effective in January 1934.

The best local opinion is that Cuba's urgent need to develop markets and possibly revise her external debt will give us a walkway in getting her to do what we want.

Santa Ana Building Figures Continue Heavy Gains

TOTAL $367,669 AT END OF SEVEN MONTH PERIOD

Evidence of a steady increase in building in Santa Ana, records in the office of Building Inspector S. I. Preble reveal that during the first seven months of this year, 1081 permits with a total valuation of $367,669 have been issued, which is $118,725.60 more than was recorded for the same period in 1932.

The total for the month of July showed a decided advantage over the same month in 1932, with figures of 58 permits and $27,176 valuation as compared to 40 permits and $12,410 value a year ago. The 1933 total for July is the highest for that month since 1924 with only two exceptions, 1929 and 1930, when 70 and 61, respectively, were taken out.

Although the total valuation for seven month periods in 1931, 1930 and 1929 were considerably higher than this year, the 1933 number of permits was more than double the highest of the other years. From January 1 to July 31, 1933, 1081 permits were issued as compared to 262 in 1932, 370 in 1931, 477 in 1930 and 500 in 1929. The peak valuation of those years was in 1930, when $1,131,340 was recorded.

The comparison between the combined months of June and July show that 137 permits valued at $367,559 were taken out in 1933 and 44 permits valued at $17,435 in 1932.

The monthly tabulations are as follows: 1933—July, 58 permits, $27,176; June, 79, $340,391; May, 165, $54,528; April, 411, $165,094.

HERE SUNDAY

Mrs. Ruth Hemingway Shaw, below, will give a dramatic reading of the Frances Hodgson Burnett story, "The Dawn of a Tomorrow" at the union service in the First Presbyterian church next Sunday night.

March, 295, $165,094; February, 46, $15,908; January, 27, $15,379. For 1932—July, 40, $12,410; June, 24, $50,225; May, 41, $37,155.50; April, 34, $39,469; March, 46, $215; February, 28, $65,462; January, 49, $60,297.

The 1933 total for only seven months is already more than $400,000 ahead of the $327,257 total for the entire year of 1932.

The peak year in Santa Ana building was in 1923 when 1656 permits were taken out with a valuation of $5,166,837. The 1933 valuation will not approach former total but the number of permits is already fourth highest in the history of the city and may go into third position over the 1259 mark set in 1921. The second highest number was in 1922 with 1548.

Japanese Hold Reception Soon

GARDEN GROVE, Aug. 3.—A reception will be given Saturday evening in the Baptist bungalow in honor of the new Japanese Baptist pastor, the Rev. K. T. Shiraiishi, who is part time minister here and in Pomona. All Japanese families interested in the church work are cordially invited to attend. A pot-luck supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock. This will be followed by a program.

READER WILL GIVE PROGRAM SUNDAY NIGHT

The union service to be held next Sunday evening in the First Presbyterian church will bring an unusual program for the enjoyment of church goers, it was announced today by R. C. Smedley, secretary of the Ministerial Association, under whose auspices the union services are held each Sunday evening.

Mrs. Ruth Hemingway Shaw, of Los Angeles, is to take the place of the preacher, and instead of the customary sermon, she will give a dramatic reading of the story by Frances Hodgson Burnett, entitled "The Dawn of a Tomorrow." This reading has been selected because of its peculiar appropriateness at the present moment, when everyone is looking for the better times just ahead, Smedley said.

From many communities in which Mrs. Shaw has been heard there, come words of commendation, both for her excellent reading and for the beauty of the selection.

"Beautiful and exceedingly effective," said Dr. E. A. Thompson, pastor of the First Congregational Church, of Pasadena. "It seems as though the story were written just for today. You have a great message for this particular time."

It is expected that a capacity audience will be attracted to hear this inspiring program on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

JURY FINDS DRIVER GUILTY ON CHARGE OF DRUNK DRIVING

A verdict of "guilty," carrying a recommendation that a fine be imposed, was returned yesterday afternoon by a jury in Superior Judge G. K. Sovell's court, in the case of Francis J. O. McFarland, Hollywood carpenter, charged with operating an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. The defendant, represented by Attorney Franklin G. West, applied for probation, the hearing of which was set for August 11.

Testimony in the trial brought out that the car of the defendant collided with one occupied by Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Monroe, of Orange, in Santa Ana canyon, causing injuries to the Monroe couple as well as to McFarland. The defendant stated that he was on his way to Palm Springs when the accident occurred. Deputy District Attorney Leo Friis conducted the prosecution.

Change of Face—and Pace—in Railroad

Here's a graphic picture story of the evolution of the locomotive. At the left is the bullet-nosed power plant now being built by the Union Pacific to streak over the rails with a three-car aluminum train at 110 miles an hour. At the right is one of the giant locomotives now in use on the road, weighing, with its tender, 330 tons—nearly five times the weight of the whole aluminum train—but so powerful it can draw mile-long freight trains at 50 miles an hour.

95 PER CENT S.A. MERCHANTS BACK NRA PLAN

A survey just completed shows that 95 per cent of the merchants and storekeepers in the city have signed and agreed to cooperate in every way possible with the National Recovery act program. A. Cavalli of the merchants' association, said today.

Most of the stores will open at 9 a.m. and will close at 5:30 p.m., Cavalli said, while many of the larger stores are awaiting the decision of stores in Los Angeles and Long Beach before determining on Saturday hours. Cavalli said there has been some dissension on the Saturday closing hours, but that the matter is expected to be settled within a few days.

The working schedule will be 40 hours a week, he said, and many merchants will have to arrange their opening and closing hours to live up to the code. Cavalli predicted that within a few days every merchant in the city will display the NRA blue eagle emblem in his windows.

Cavalli found, while making the survey, that business during the past month was ahead of the same month last year, and many merchants reporting a marked increase.

James N. Harding, vice president of the association, will call a meeting of the nominating committee tomorrow to draw up a list of candidates for directors of the association, who will be voted on at the semi-annual election on August 20. Five new directors will be elected and four will serve for another six months. Members of the nominating committee are James Harding, Jerry Hall, Claude McDowell, W. S. Suddaby, Don Jerome, Gilbert Campbell and Milton Foster.

BREAKFASTERS REVIEW PART IN BIG FIESTA

Margaret Sawyer, elected queen of the Fiesta del Oro, was an honored guest at the regular weekly meeting of the Orange County Breakfast club this morning at Ketter's cafe. She was accompanied by one of her princesses, Hazel Lee.

President Claude McDowell introduced several members of the Breakfast club who aided materially in making a success of the Breakfast club program last Thursday which opened the Fiesta.

These included Hunter Leach, whose chuck wagon won first prize for the Breakfast club in Division A of the parade Thursday; Floyd Stewart, who won first prize in the whisker-growing contest; Ivis Stein, who helped direct the Fiesta; Hubert Bown who had charge of the sale of tickets for the opening breakfast; Bill Huntington who aided with the float; and The Register for its publicity through Kenneth Adams.

Honoring Guy Gilbert, past president of the club, who was married recently to Edith Ritter, principal of Fremont school, Sam Jernigan attended the meeting dressed in a high hat and swallow-tail coat, while Earl Morrow was attired as a minister, wearing a derby hat. Gilbert spoke briefly of his trip to the Chicago fair.

Bown reported that nearly 500 were fed at the opening breakfast, Gene Kahen introduced Miss Sawyer and Miss Lee.

Entertainment for the meeting was furnished by six-year-old Dixie Jane Luke, who danced a toe dance, and by Jerry Hall, who sang a group of solos, accompanied at the piano by Art Cannon.

Susanna and back to Orange county, settling this time in Brea. They left unpaid bills both in Anaheim and Santa Susanna, the complaint adds.

MOTORISTS OF CITY RESPOND TO CAR TESTS

Safety Lane, which opened in Santa Ana yesterday, is a success and as a result, scores of congratulations were being received today by the chief of police and officials of the Automobile Club of Orange County, sponsors of the project.

Enthusiastic response of motorists, evidenced by the large volume of cars inspected, gives assurance that the lane will be one of the most successful safety campaigns ever staged in Santa Ana, according to those in charge.

There are seven inspection stations in Safety Lane, which is being staged on Cypress street between First and Walnut for the second year. The owner whose car passes the stations perfectly is awarded an O. K. certificate. Others are given recommendations for adjustments. The inspections are made on lights, brakes, wheel alignment, horn, windshield wiper and other things affecting safety on the highways.

The lane will be in operation every day except Sunday and will close next Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. No charge is made for any of the inspections, it was explained, the service being given to make motorists "safety conscious".

Park Supper Honors Visitor From Texas

Coming as one of the merriest events in which T. W. Hendra has participated since he came some time ago from his home in Dallas, Tex., to make an annual summer stay in this city, was a party held Tuesday evening. The affair was held in Birch park as a surprise celebration of his birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendra have been here since June, with plans to remain for another month. They are established in an apartment at 215 West Second street, where they have stayed during their three previous summer visits in Santa Ana.

Friends had arranged the party, which included a delicious supper at the park tables, ice cream and birthday cake, the latter baked by Mrs. Hendra, were served with the dessert course. The honor guest received many gifts.

Following the supper hour, the group adjourned to the Hendra home for a pleasant evening.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hendra, Mr. and Mrs. Don McCollum and daughter Joy Ann; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seba, Mrs. M. A. Carmichael, Mrs. J. P. Ryan, Miss M. L. Ashley, Miss Ruth Tomlinson, Miss Florence Scherbert, Miss Evelyn Scherbert and Miss Florine Butler.

Bride Chapel Adorned With Summer Flowers For Morning Rites

Fragrant with flowers and glowing in the soft radiance of lighted tapers soaring from handsome candelabra, the bride chapel of First Methodist Episcopal church this morning received many guests, assembled for the solemn beauty of the wedding rites uniting Miss Jennie Pospesil of Santa Ana and Harold T. Watson of Huntington Beach.

Morning Rites

The ceremony took place at 11 o'clock following a short musical program with Miss Evelyn Hunton at the piano and Mrs. Edward Story as soprano soloist. "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," and "I Love You Truly" were the bride's choice of solos sung by Mrs. Story, and Miss Hunton included in her music the Wagner Wedding March from Lohengrin as the processional, and the Mendelssohn Wedding March when the newly united couple left the chapel.

Miss Pospesil, given in marriage by her father, James Pospesil, 206 West Washington avenue, was a charming young bride in her smartly tailored suit of dark blue, with hat and slippers in the same shade, while her gloves toned in with the silvery gray fur of the suit's trimming. A shoulder cluster of gardenias completed her modish appearance.

Her sister, Miss Calla M. Pospesil, maid of honor, likewise selected a blue suit with gray trimming and accessories, and carried roses. Wilfred Woolley assisted Mr. Watson as best man in the solemn rites read by the Rev. George A. Warner, D. D., pastor of the church.

Wedding Breakfast

Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Watson lingered for but a few moments for the felicitations of the many guests, then sought the Doris Kathryn Tea Shoppe, where they and their attendants were complimented at a wedding breakfast to which only relatives and a little group of close friends were bidden.

Mr. and Mrs. Pospesil, parents of the lovely bride, and Judge and Mrs. C. P. Patton of Huntington Beach, uncle and aunt of the groom, received with the young couple. Mrs. Pospesil wore a graceful gown of deep blue georgette, with a corsage bouquet of white sweet peas, while Mrs. Patton chose a composite costume, also in blue, with a corsage of violas.

Deep red roses graced the breakfast tables, glowing like wine against the snowy linen, and were massed in baskets through the rooms. The inviting menu concluded with a dessert course when an appropriately decorated cake was produced for the first slice, according to all bridal traditions.

Guests received at the breakfast in addition to the bridal party and Mr. and Mrs. Pospesil and Judge and Mrs. Patton, included Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jacob, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Pitton, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie W. Hynes, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Story, Miss Ella Davis, Miss Evelyn Hunton and C. L. Davis, Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. Dean Thomas, Mrs. Myrtle Herlinger, Miss Margaret Gleaves, Messrs. Thomas Wylie and Everett Herlinger, Huntington Beach; Harry Stevenson, San Diego; Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Pospesil, Mr. and Mrs. H. Q. Haskins, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Mellinger and Harold Nickells, Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Midway City, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoxie, Wilmington.

Honeymoon Plans
Shortly after the breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Watson left for an automobile trip up the coast to Santa Barbara and other coast cities. After two weeks' absence they will return to Huntington Beach, where a home awaits them at 406 Sixth street, and where Mr. Watson is in the insurance business. He was a member of the 1929 graduating class from Santa Ana Junior college, and won the First National bank award of $50 for outstanding scholastic attainments.

Board members of Santa Ana Business and Professional Women's club made their August session a very pleasant social affair when they were privileged to meet last night with Miss Louise Zaiser in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank H. Paterson, 2415 Heliotrope drive, and enjoy a dinner in the patio.

Business matters were left for the after-dinner interval and board members gave their undivided attention to the beauty of the setting, the secluded garden with its wall fountain, its flowers and the latticed compartment where the family enjoys countless alfresco dinners. Following the appetizing dinner menu, chairs were grouped around the wide outdoor fireplace, and the business meeting was held in the combined glow of the waxing moon and the leaping flame of the logs.

First attention was given plans for next Monday's general club meeting, and Miss Kaiser of the August committee, announced a picnic supper to be held at 6:30 o'clock in Anaheim City park. Members are to make reservations with Miss Helen Gallagher, as the hostess committee must know the number to be present for supper.

the opening of

BABY'S OWN SHOP

A Unique Shop of

Infants', Children's and Junior Apparel

A very cordial invitation is given all mothers to attend our opening—

SATURDAY, AUGUST 5th

WILCOX KIDDIE SHOP

years ago, I bumped up against that problem and found the then known lists of little value to one who was uninformed, so when I compiled my own list I got out one that even a ten-year old child can read and use.

Would you like to have a copy of this efficient list of foods? You may, providing you'll make a trade with me: you send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope, marking it in pencil on a corner "calory list," and one of your pet recipes. That's all. The lists are ready to mail at once, no waiting for the printer, as we had to with the reducing diets. Salads, vegetable and meat recipes are first choice, cakes, etc., second, but very welcome. If you'd like a copy of the Safe and Sane Reducing Diet you may have it by asking that it be included, otherwise it is necessary to send a stamped, addressed envelope for it.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Tomato Pie

Sliced tomatoes
Biscuit dough
3 tps sugar
Salt and pepper, ad lib
1-8 pound butter
Cracker crumbs or fine bread crumbs.

Serve this tomato pie with steak the next time you serve steak; you need not serve potatoes, or other vegetable, unless you wish two vegetables.

It is convenient to keep on hand a package of the ready-mixed biscuit flour for such recipes as this. Take about 1 1/4 cups of the preparation and wet with milk as directed. Roll it out thin and line a casserole, rubbed with lots of cold butter.

Why the cold butter? Because I want a thick film to stick to the casserole to enrich the dough and keep it from sticking.

Slice the tomatoes fairly thick, arrange in layers, each layer seasoned with salt, pepper, a tsp. of sugar, and bits of butter. Scatter crumbs over each layer, and over the top put a blanket of biscuit dough, brushed with melted butter or salad oil.

Bake in a hot oven 6 minutes to set the biscuit dough, then reduce the heat and bake until a fork goes easily to the bottom of the dish. (Be sure and cut an air hole in the top for steam.)

There are approximately 2000 calories in the Tomato Pie, rather rich ones, too, so it would be advisable to keep the dessert low in calory values. That means that you serve berries or watermelon or cantaloupe instead of pie or ice cream. The pie will serve six, possibly eight.

Saturday: Pineapple Drop Cookies, so good you'll make them every week through the summer.

ANN MEREDITH.

Pile Sufferers

Can You Answer These Questions?

Do you know why external remedies do not give quick and permanent relief?

Why, cutting does not remove the cause?

Do you know the cause of Piles is internal?

That there is congestion of blood in the lower bowel—the veins flabby, the parts almost dead?

Do you know that there is a harmless internal remedy for itching, bleeding or protruding piles discovered by Dr. Leonhardt and known as HEM-ROID that is guaranteed?

HEM-ROID banishes piles by removing the cause. It stimulates the circulation in the lower bowel—drives out the thick impure blood, heals and restores the affected parts.

Dr. Leonhardt's HEM-ROID has an almost unbelievable record of success right in this city. So why waste time on external remedies or worry about an operation when McCoy's Drug Store invites every Pile sufferer to try HEM-ROID with guarantee of money-back if it does not end their Piles no matter how stubborn the case?

TALKS ON CRIME FOR 20-30 CLUB

ORANGE, Aug. 3.—Sheriff Logan Jackson and Deputy Sheriff Russell Lutes were the speakers at the meeting of the 20-30 club at the Woman's clubhouse Wednesday night. Sheriff Jackson made an appeal to the young men present to serve society in the suppression of crime, and explained to them some of the ways they could assist officers in the apprehension of criminals.

Lutes illustrated his talk with slides showing the operation of the sheriff's office and the jail. The modern methods of solving criminal problems in this county were revealed in the course of the talk. Members of the club were finger printed on identification cards furnished by Sheriff Jackson.

Many questions followed the talk and Lutes explained that finger prints not only are valuable in criminal work but in other work as well. He told how many bodies recovered from the ocean or in accidents have been identified by finger prints alone. Cliff Swedberg presided.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KING

The happy Tinymites stood back, to let the chest flop down ker-smack. "Well, here it comes," cried Scouty. "It's as heavy as can be."

"It may sink down deep in the sand, but all of you can lend a hand until we dig it out again." Then Copy shouted, "Wheel!"

"The big chest made a dandy splash! I hope it isn't full of trash, 'cause we worked hard to get it out from inside this old ship."

"It was a job to search around like we did, till the chest was found. Gee, whiz! If it is empty, we'll have made a useless trip."

"Well, wait and see," cried Dotty. "I will gladly help somebody try to pry the monstrous lock loose. 'Course we haven't any keys."

"Hey, Duncy! Will you kindly bring a rock. Then we can smash the thing. When once the lock is off, we'll open up the chest with ease."

A heavy rock was shortly found and all the Tinies gathered round while Scouty swung it up and down. He soon said, "It's no use. I've smashed and smashed with all my might, but still the chest is locked up tight. 'Twill take much more than my strength, lads, to get the big lock loose."

Then Shrimpy smiled and said, "I guess I'll put an end to this fine mess. I know a little mermaid who has lots and lots of keys."

"In fact, I see her coming now. I'm sure she'll help us out, somehow. She'll do most anything we ask, if we will just say please."

"So to the mermaid Scouty cried, 'We want to see what is inside this chest. Will you please help us? We're expecting quite a thrill.'"

The mermaid swam up to the chest and said, "I'll do my very best. One of my keys will turn the lock. At least, I think it will."

(The Tinies get a big surprise in the next story.)

SEEK FEDERAL AND STATE AID ON NEW SCHOOL

PLACENTIA, Aug. 3.—"We expect to make the Placentia schools so interesting that students will like to attend school," Superintendent Ralph E. Essert of Placentia Union Grammar schools said yesterday, on report that Ray Adkinson, superintendent of public instruction of Orange county schools, had certified the election signifying the intention of the Placentia Union grammar school district to withdraw from the Fullerton Union High school district.

Although no definite plans for procedure are ready, the board at Placentia will meet this evening to canvass returns, and to start proceedings to get state aid, and to investigate getting federal funds for building.

Essert also expressed hope of continuing the La Jolla project, under the supervision of Dr. Julius Merriam of the University of California at Los Angeles. The project at La Jolla, which has received citations from many noted authorities because of the unusual results obtained in education of the foreign speaking children, now has classes under the new experiment to sixth grade.

The board, led by E. Lyon, president, Buell Beard, Warren Bradford, Earl Mathis and Lawrence Lemke, will meet at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the Bradford avenue school to consider the new setup for a high school.

Essert declared that no high school teachers except those with master's degrees and accredited general secondary certificates will be considered in the new Valencia school as an instructor. He declared the great purpose of the Placentia school setup was to teach the three Cs, courtesy, culture and citizenship, "without which all education is a failure."

15TH ANNUAL EXHIBITION IS OPENED AT L. B. ART GALLERY; CRITIC SPEAKS NEXT SUNDAY

Remarkable for its variety and the recognition of so many painters new to the prize show of the year, the 15th annual anniversary exhibition of the Laguna Beach Art association opened yesterday at the Art gallery, Coast boulevard at Cliff drive. While there is a sprinkling of the modern canvases, the exhibit stands out from those of the past few months from an academic standpoint. Paintings by William Swift Daniell and W. S. Foster, who died in the last year, have been hung in memory of the artists.

Among the newcomers to the annual show are Roy M. Ropp, Laguna Beach contractor and realtor, whose "Desert Sunshine and Flowers" shows improvement over his earlier work, and Miss Ada Bell.

The selection jury was composed of Eleanor Colburn, Thomas L. Hunt, William A. Griffith, William Wendt and Alice V. Fullerton, with Tom Lewis and George K. Brandriff, alternates. The regular Sunday afternoon sea will be a gala event in honor of the new show. Arthur Miller, Los Angeles art critic, will talk on "What's New in Art." The reception will last from 3 to 5 o'clock.

CITY COUNCIL LISTS WORK ON BREA STREETS

BREA, Aug. 3.—City Engineer R. W. Phelps presented a tentative outline of work to be done on Brea streets which will be allocated to the city, at the city council session Wednesday night. Both Pomona avenue and Imperial highway were eliminated from the program as being potentially within the state's system of secondary roads.

The council agreed that the first work will be done on West Birch street, Birch Lane and Selvers, completing the connection from East Birch to West Imperial highway as a direct outlet from Olinda and Yorba Linda to the state highway west of Brea. The program will be prepared from the standpoint of advantage to the taxpayer rather than from that of the patron, it was stated.

Phelps submitted an estimate of $50,000, roughly covering the cost of the development of a water well for the city. The estimate covered the purchase of the land, drilling, equipment, ditching, tunneling, the purchase and laying of a ten-inch cast iron water main from the proposed well to the city's reservoir, a distance of several miles. This project is being proposed under the prospect of federal assistance.

The application of W. E. Cullen for an "on sale" beverage license for operation at 110 North Orange street was granted. The proposal of Councilman Schweitzer that the city install equipment for the play-grounds on the ground just west of the city fire department was adopted. Croquet grounds probably will be installed later.

City councilmen were advised by City Attorney Albert Launer to stand by the city ordinance in regard to the publication and advertising of delinquent tax lists, the penalties and other provisions governing the lists, regardless of recent legislation which might seem to be interpreted as making this procedure unnecessary and void.

Dr. K. H. Sutherland and J. P. Flynn of the Orange county health department were present to urge that suggestions in letter from C. G. Gillespie, chief of the state bureau of sanitary engineering, be followed in the matter of treating sewage disposal before it is allowed to be used by B. Arrous in irrigating a citrus grove just west of the city's sewage plant on First street. Gillespie advised that the sewage be chlorinated and after some discussion of the matter the council agreed to consider doing so, provided no new equipment is necessary and provided the cost of chlorination does not exceed the small sum named by the engineer.

BREA CLUB IN MOVE FOR BALL GAMES AT NIGHT

BREA, Aug. 3.—J. D. Neuls and Howard Robinson, representing the Brea Lions club, sponsors of the Brea baseball nine, are, with other Lions, making tentative arrangements for having night games played in Brea and are enlisting the support of the Brea-Olinda High School board and the city council to that end.

They estimate the cost of equipping grounds with the necessary lights at about $250. This amount not to include the labor, all of which will be contributed without cost, they report. The cost of electric current is estimated at $150 an evening.

The Lions club has in mind the athletic field at the high school, believing that it will be to the advantage of the school to have the grounds thus lighted so that student body games may be conducted there at night when desired. Councilmen Close and Baldwin are working with Neuls and Robinson on the project.

The Brea Lions baseball club has been playing through the summer months, meeting teams at various points in the county and it is believed that bringing such games to Brea will create much interest in the community. The team is under the management of Virgil Kiger and several Brea business men have been playing in the club.

Fifty years ago, the annual death rate in New York City was 30 per 1000 of population; today it is about 12 per 1000.

MORE THAN 200 MERCHANTS IN ANAHEIM SIGN

ANAHEIM, August 3.—All yesterday employers poured into the postoffice to sign the N. I. R. A. agreements and secure the blue eagle emblem of compliance with the federal plan to route out man depression. Postmaster J. H. Whitaker announced this morning.

"I doubt if all the signers know what it is they are signing," he said, "but they all want the eagle in the shortest time possible." He expressed doubt as to whether those signing up would live up to their agreement, but expressed hope that everything would be worked out satisfactorily.

Throughout the day new eagles were perched in downtown windows and similar stickers were put on automobiles until every place the town seemed to blaze with the red, white and blue.

More than 200 merchants have now sent in their agreements which in turn are being forwarded to San Francisco where the names will be placed on a roll of honor and later posted in the postoffice.

ANAHEIM, Aug. 3.—Board members of the Co-operative association will hold a meeting Friday night at headquarters on East Adele street to determine new ways of financing the organization.

At the last regular meeting of the city council that body with following a protest made by M. Ingelhart, a former member, denied the group the longer needed aid and that it continued to be given legal action would be taken against the board of trustees.

Since last fall the city has been paying $15 a month rent on the building used by the unemployed organization. Under a state law a sixth class city, is permitted to give emergency aid of this kind. The board deemed this an emergency act at the time.

Charles K. Eaton, president of the Workers' Co-operation, said that several plans are being worked out and that probably no further aid will be asked of the city. He said that whatever plan was accepted it would have to meet a $50 a month overhead to pay for rent, light, water and incidental expenses.

Members are optimistic over the NIRA plan and already oil workers have been notified by major companies to re-register.

ANAHEIM, Aug. 3.—(UP)—Stocks moved over an irregular course throughout today's session with volume small.

Other markets patterned after the big board. Bonds mixed and so were grains. Wheat closed higher. Barley was down 3 cents a bushel. Cotton lost an early gain and settled lower. Small net loss late in the day. The dollar, late in the day, was slightly down.

The market opened irregularly higher, but quickly ran off to a decline. When they had sold off 1 to more than 3 points and the remainder of the market had experienced a rather pathos reaction, the list steadied and came back from the lows.

Announcement of award of government heavy building contracts gave the shipbuilding issues a brief period of strength. They jumped 1/4 to 1/2 points. New York Shipbuilding equaled its high for the year. That group retained part of the gains.

In the last hour the wet issues had another rapid rise. In that period National Distillers touched 39 1/2, and Industrial Alcohol 64 1/2, up 1/2; and American Commercial Alcohol 48 1/2, up 1/2. Part of the gains was erased in the finish, however.

Mining issues were irregular but relatively more active than most others. Gold mining issues, with the exception of the copper, were mostly steady. Coppers were mixed. Silver issues ruled steady to firm, influenced by steady tin prices. While other commodities declined.

Leaders in the industrial railroad, and utility issues moved in a narrow range. Steel Common was under the previous close most of the day, at one time selling down to 23 1/2, net. One of the steel corporation's subsidiaries benefited by ship orders and that brought the stock up to the low.

J. I. Case declined more than 2 points, the irregularity of the Chrysler reacted more than a point in a barely steady automobile group. American Can lost 1/2 point, while trading. Allied Chemical was steady while Monsanto Chemical gained 1/4 point at its top of 69 1/2.

There were still uncertainties over the handling of the market to account for the dullness. The general market was not so sure. No confirmation came on the apparently authentic reports which circulated out of Washington that the government's financial program would soon be resumed.

Traders who had been hoping for a fresh start in the market were disappointed by opinions of experts that no such market would be permitted until the government's financial arrangements for the rest of the year were made.

FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—(UP)—Stocks moved over an irregular course throughout today's session with volume small. Other markets patterned after the big board. Bonds mixed and so were grains. Wheat closed higher. Barley was down 3 cents a bushel. Cotton lost an early gain and settled lower. Small net loss late in the day. The dollar, late in the day, was slightly down.

The market opened irregularly higher, but quickly ran off to a decline. When they had sold off 1 to more than 3 points and the remainder of the market had experienced a rather pathos reaction, the list steadied and came back from the lows.

Announcement of award of government heavy building contracts gave the shipbuilding issues a brief period of strength. They jumped 1/4 to 1/2 points. New York Shipbuilding equaled its high for the year. That group retained part of the gains.

In the last hour the wet issues had another rapid rise. In that period National Distillers touched 39 1/2, and Industrial Alcohol 64 1/2, up 1/2; and American Commercial Alcohol 48 1/2, up 1/2. Part of the gains was erased in the finish, however.

Mining issues were irregular but relatively more active than most others. Gold mining issues, with the exception of the copper, were mostly steady. Coppers were mixed. Silver issues ruled steady to firm, influenced by steady tin prices. While other commodities declined.

Leaders in the industrial railroad, and utility issues moved in a narrow range. Steel Common was under the previous close most of the day, at one time selling down to 23 1/2, net. One of the steel corporation's subsidiaries benefited by ship orders and that brought the stock up to the low.

J. I. Case declined more than 2 points, the irregularity of the Chrysler reacted more than a point in a barely steady automobile group. American Can lost 1/2 point, while trading. Allied Chemical was steady while Monsanto Chemical gained 1/4 point at its top of 69 1/2.

There were still uncertainties over the handling of the market to account for the dullness. The general market was not so sure. No confirmation came on the apparently authentic reports which circulated out of Washington that the government's financial program would soon be resumed.

Traders who had been hoping for a fresh start in the market were disappointed by opinions of experts that no such market would be permitted until the government's financial arrangements for the rest of the year were made.

THE SALES TAX OPERATES

We have now been operating under the sales tax for two days. We have had conflicting stories come in as to the reception of this tax by the purchasers. Some are accepting it in good part, and are paying it, if not happily, agreeably, realizing that it is going to help balance the state budget. Others are quite impatient concerning it, as the small amount appears to be large to them.

Unfortunately, owing to the split amounts, and the impossibility of the customer paying exactly two and a half per cent in each case, in some cases it amounts to over six per cent on what is purchased, while in other cases it amounts to only 1-2. For example, if a person buys a 15c article, the one cent additional amounts to between six and seven per cent on his purchase. And if it is a 25c lunch, for example, he pays the same, or one cent, which is four per cent. In the first place, in the 15 cent purchase, it is two and a half times the rate of the tax, and in the 25 cent purchase it is one and a half times.

But the poor merchant, who must collect the tax and pay it, has no other way to collect, because there is no coin less than a penny. We almost ought to have a fraction of a cent coined in California for the purpose of paying this tax. To be sure, the merchant can absorb this tax, but in many cases this would take his entire profit, or force him possibly further into the "red" than he is now going in other cases.

We had expected that the public generally would take to it quite happily, as they voted for amendment number one, after a thorough discussion and an explanation that it would probably mean a three per cent sales tax. We are afraid some people didn't quite understand what a sales tax meant. They are understanding now.

We should judge from some complaints that they are a great deal like the man who wanted to sue a party for libel, because a person called him a hippopotamus. And the judge, on learning that it happened some months before this asked him why he brought the case so late, and he said because he hadn't seen a hippopotamus until the day before. We now have seen what a sales tax is. It can be passed on by all sellers. The ultimate consumer, if he be a laborer, must finally add it to his cost of service.

NRA GOES INTO OPERATION

The N R A is going into operation in a very wonderful way over the country. There are so many things about it that are highly commendable, and the fact that no one is being cut in wages, that thousands of additional people are being employed, is sufficient vindication of its value.

There are some provisions about it concerning which we wonder. One of these is the smallness of the minimum wage. Another feature is the very slight increase of this minimum wage in the cities of larger population. The difference in the wage between a city of 2500 and a great metropolitan center of 500,000 should certainly be more than $1.00.

In small cities workmen can easily walk to their homes, and in any case reach them in five or ten minutes, and even in cities of 30,000 or 35,000 but in cities ranging to half a million, an hour more is usually expended by workmen going to and from their labor, and the additional cost in carfare, rent and other expenses should entitle them, it seems to us, to a greater differential than one dollar a week. However, time will work this out, and it is infinitely better than the conditions which have been prevailing.

After all is said and done, the work of the country is going to be shared by the people who need employment. And this will be carried out to such finality that all of the people will be employed, with a minimum wage sufficient to guarantee them the necessities and the essential comforts of life. When this has finally been accomplished, one of the great goals of civilization has been reached. We believe from everything that we see and hear of the President, that this is one of his great purposes.

A "BRAIN-TRUST" IN SPAIN

The so-called "brain-trust" in the United States is not the only one in the world. It is fortunate that it is not because each can learn from the other's mistakes. And since the "brain trust" is something new in modern governments there are things to be learned. The other "brain trust," according to Professor Frank Callcott of the Spanish department of Columbia University, is in Spain. The government of Spain, he says, is being run by a group of radicals who were young in 1898 and who were then disillusioned. They include writers, professors and intellectuals.

Professor Callcott says that there is free speech and a free press and the opposition papers print the most daring statements. One wonders how intellectual a government must be to appreciate the wisdom of letting the opposition have its say.

In spite of the freedom permitted the opposition in Spain, says this student of affairs, in that country there is no likelihood that the republic will not endure, although there may be trouble between the various parties. "I found little sympathy for Fascism or Hitlerism in Spain and not much enthusiasm for Communism except among those under twenty," he said.

VOLGA CAPTAIN SENTENCED

The captain of a Volga excursion boat was ordered shot the other day and his assistant was sentenced to ten years imprisonment, and a group of lesser officials given one and two-year sentences. The trial followed the loss of ninety-eight lives when the boat went down in the Volga because it was overloaded. The boat had a capacity of 125 passengers and twice that number were on the boat when it foundered. The new morality which is being taught in Russia places a high value on human life.

The trial and sentence of this captain, who jeopardized two hundred and fifty lives and whose act resulted in the death of ninety-eight lives, is an object lesson which will go a long way toward driving home a sense of responsibility in all people whose activity places them in a position similar to this captain. Other captains will think a long time before overloading their boats, merely because they can get a little more money from the additional passengers, when they know that they will have to pay with their lives if tragedy results from the act.

CRIME SURVEY PRELIMINARY TO DESTRUCTION OF RACKETS

Assistant Secretary of State Moley has been appointed at the head of a special survey to determine where and how the Federal power can best be used as a weapon against the criminal.

Mr. Moley takes up the duties of this position peculiarly adapted for it. He has written several volumes on crime, and has taught the subject of criminology, and he undoubtedly will bring out very speedily a program which, if placed in operation, will result in a speedy check upon racketeers.

Incidentally, it may be possible that the placing of Mr. Moley in this position avoids some friction in the State department, for surely where there has been so much rumor, there must be some ground for it.

HAZELNUT BUTTER

A German archeologist has found some butter 2,700 years old which is still in good condition. Germany might have been able to prolong the war a day if this discovery had been made in 1918. Two lumps of the butter were found in an urn which had been buried with a man of the Iron Age. The urn had been sealed in such a way that in all these hundreds of years the bacteria and fungi had not penetrated to the butter.

Since the dispatch states, however, that the archeologist recognized it for hazelnut butter by the shells embedded in it, it couldn't have been first quality butter. And yet, to an Iron Age man a few shells here and there were nothing at all. Is it a sign of progress or not that we don't like shells in the cookies today?

ONE PROBABLE RESULT OF NRA

The National Recovery Act is going to work to the benefit, we believe, of the man who is in business for himself, and does not employ any help. For he will not have to pay minimum wages, and also will be free from the limitation on his hours.

Under the present conditions, it is the same advantage, in a way, that the shop operated only by a proprietor used to have over the union shop, where they were compelled to pay the union scale. It will probably work its way out, but it is really to the benefit of the small shop man, but as he has had many handicaps, maybe something for his benefit for a period may not come amiss.

Dress

Christian Science Monitor

Only one topic could unite bishops, postmen, tennis enthusiasts, conference delegates, dukes and letter writers to the press in a common interest. That topic is dress.

In Britain, of course, the policies of President Roosevelt and Herr Hitler each have their interested public. But the problems that are really exercising the keenest intellects of the country are, so far as one can learn from the press: Should bishops (as the Bishop of Kensington is said to have suggested) wear leather leggings? and ought dukes to dine in evening dress?

The urgency of this latter question has quite thrust into the background the even trickier question as to whether a considerable proportion of the nation will manage to dine at all. Then there are the sartorial complications of the tennis court. Mr. H. W. Austin has many admirers, but not all of them have a taste for slicing their trousers off at the knee, as is the habit of that distinguished player when appearing at Wimbledon. It will be interesting to observe how many local sportsmen this summer agree with Mr. Austin that tennis court trousers should be "court" trousers in both the English and the French meanings of the term.

But it is the problem of evening dress that is causing the most earnest discussion. The Duke of Marlborough recently attended a banquet clad in a soft shirt and white suit, thus thoughtfully settling the vexed question of whether the Churchill family objects to white as a color, or only to White Papers.

The Duke's action, however, filled certain theatrical managers, including Mr. C. B. Cochran, with alarm. Soft shirts at dinner, it is felt, will result in plus fours in the stalls. This, thinks Mr. Cochran, must be avoided at all costs. The theater, he feels, is a social occasion, and everyone should dress for it, whether "dressing" means putting on a white tie or only a clean handkerchief.

Driving his point home, Mr. Cochran quotes with approval the owner of a theater who displayed over his gallery entrance, "No gentleman allowed in without a collar." As yet the noise of battle is unabated, and no one knows in which direction victory inclines.

THE MISTAKE OF THE MAYAS

Unknown are Mayas, and unsung;
This quaint mysterious breed
Set down a story in a tongue
Impossible to read.
No doubt their customs and their laws
Progressive were and wise,
But we shall never know, because
They did not advertise.

The Greeks and Romans took good care
Their glories to attest;
Their worth was blazoned everywhere,
North, East, and South and West.
And now from Nome to Timbuctu
Is spread their deathless fame,
Because these shrewd old fellows knew
The advertising game.

The canny Kings of Egypt wrote
Their tales on slabs of stone
So they today are men of note,
To all the world well known.
All rulers of intelligence,
Clear back as far as Ur,
Made sure that every man of sense
Knew what and who they were.

Men roam the Mayan ruins through,
They seek by shore and sea,
But hopelessly to find out who
And what they used to be.
They wander, uninformed and sad,
Among the dumb remains
In vain, for not a Mayan had Smart advertising brains.

PARAGRAPHS

By Robert Quillen

These are the times that fry men's souls.
The Japs don't really think their ruler is a god. They don't blame him when they lose their shirts.

A short crop makes grain go up, but stocks are just thumbing a ride.

You can't expect much in a land where the victim praises kidnapers because they treated him well.

THE FINAL PROOF OF A GOOD SALAD IS THE FACT THAT YOU CAN'T TASTE THE CARROTS.

The reason money goes to the head is because Nature won't tolerate a vacuum.

The American language is unique. It's the only one in which immorality means nothing but sex.

At last the President has found something that Director-of-the-Budget Douglas can't reduce. He is seven pounds overweight.

AMERICANISM: Granting immunity to offenders who are rich: wondering why people try so desperately hard to get money.

A burnt child dreads the fire but it's different with widowers. Suggestion for your office wall: A sign reading, "Life is made up of time, and the person who takes my time takes my life."

Simile: Indifferent as a doctor's "uh-huh" when, during the examination, you try to tell him all your symptoms.

Somehow we just can't help imagining, after hearing the average radio announcer, that he sleeps with his own picture under his pillow and writes love letters to himself.

CORRECT THIS SENTENCE: "HE DROVE A SWELL CAR," SAID THE MERCHANT, "SO I KNEW HIS CHECK WAS GOOD."

A NEW DECALOGUE OF BUSINESS

First Part

Alexander Ruthven, president of the University of Michigan, has worked out a new decalogue of business which covers what seem to him the new educational obligations of business as it enters a new phase of its development. Today and tomorrow I shall summarize this contribution to business thinking.

(1) Every business should be based on the understanding that it is an institution of society, with responsibilities not only to the stockholders and customers, but also to the general public and to the employees both as workmen and citizens.

(2) In every business, attention should be given to social and human objectives designed to improve health, to build morale, to stabilize emotions, and in general to equip the workers for participation in the normal life of the community as well as to do their work well.

(3) In every business there should be a sincere effort to secure a sympathetic atmosphere and a friendly tone in each unit or subdivision—the only environment in which pride and contentment may develop as characteristics of a trained mind and body.

(4) In every business emphasis should be given to that type of discipline which comes through:

(a) Doing supremely well necessary and worthwhile tasks.

(b) Respecting law.

(c) Observing the right of others.

(d) Appreciating the value of orderly and methodical procedures.

(5) In every business one of the chief objectives in each unit should be to give each man as wide an experience in the exploration of various crafts and trades as time and ability permit. Immediate aim should be an education for adjustment, but the ultimate goal should be a future citizen who will have greater appreciation and understanding of the contribution of other types of workers and their place in the life of a community. All tasks in each unit should be used to this end. Workers with special talents and skills may need to be assigned to special tasks, but no able-bodied member should be excused from all unskilled tasks. Each worker should be taught to appreciate the dignity and educational value of any task, whether manual or mental, that contributes to the welfare of the group.

Tomorrow I shall present the second part of this new decalogue of business.

THE INFANTS' JOB

One of the things for which we should remember to thank God is our power to forget. What would become of us if we remembered faithfully in detail all that happened to us in our lives? A merciful providence permits us to forget what is not important to our needs.

We have forgotten much of what happened to us in childhood. Only the high spots stand out. Our memories of childhood are selected ones. We tell them over and over to ourselves for reasons that concern ourselves alone. We remember the grave hurt we received from an unjust elder. We cling to the memory of kindnesses shown us and we completely forget many unhappy occurrences either of our own making or of others who cared little what happened to us one way or the other. Especially do we remember our virtues. Most of us remember ourselves as good children, who learned our lessons and obeyed our parents and respected authority, at least to a degree of respectability. All our failures are shut out.

As a matter of fact all of us made all the mistakes children can make. None of us grew up to our present stage of respectability, without causing teachers and parents and relatives trouble and worry. When we scold the children and take righteous airs upon ourselves we are cheating the record. It is far more truthful to say, "This is a mistake. Most children of your age make it. Intelligent children do not go on making it. If you are an intelligent child you will not make it again. Go your way and sin no more." It is the truth that sets children free. Even the shadow of untruthfulness that we cast when we assume holier than thou airs toward children hurts them, chills and repels them. We undo the good that we would do because we are not honest with ourselves.

It is not that we ought to tell children all the mistakes we made. Far from it. The less we say about them the better. Let them stay where our minds so wisely put them, out of sight and out of mind, but let the experience they gave us enrich our understanding of the children so that we can help them over the hard places without condemning them for falling over them.

Children have twenty years and more for a growing time. Their infancy is the longest of all God's creation. They grow slowly, and they go far. Who are we to grow impatient over their slow growth? We who have barely reached the standard of living we set up for the children. It is only yesterday that we learned to be tolerant of other people's likes and dislikes. It was only yesterday afternoon that we learned that it was only decent to allow another man to hold and to express an opinion that differed from our own. Perhaps it was but this morning that we learned to speak truth openly and unashamedly. We hope that by some far tomorrow to learn that we belong to a common brotherhood and that what hurts one hurts all, while what helps one, helps all. We, the leaders of childhood are barely out of our long infancy.

An infant has a long hard job ahead of him. He has to grow himself into a worthy person, a brother to all the world. Give him a chance. His job is harder even than yours has been. Remember your struggles, dig them out of the forgotten places long enough to suffer a minute, and then have mercy upon the struggling children.

(Mr. Patri will give personal attention to inquiries from parents and school teachers on the care and development of children. Write him in care of this paper, inclosing stamped, addressed envelope for reply.)

In the Long Ago

From The Register Files

AUGUST 3, 1919

The first Orange county soldier to arrive home with a French brock was Lieutenant Paul Comstock, of Anaheim, who was at his parents' home accompanied by an attractive French bride, formerly Miss Leonie Ribla of Nancy. The wedding had occurred in May, 1918, and his parents were ready to welcome their new daughter-in-law, but did not disclose the secret until the arrival of the young couple.

Plans were being considered for an addition to two classrooms and a large kindergarten to Tustin school.

Edgar Hartung, of Anaheim, refused an offer of $100,000 and the year's crop for his 20-acre Valencia orange grove on the Olive road which he had purchased 6 months earlier from William Trapp for $68,000. The owner estimated that the crop would run a minimum of 8000 packed boxes, making the offer for the ranch an equivalent of $6000 an acre.

A project to build 15 five-room houses in the block bounded by Lacy, Sixth, Fifth and Garfield streets, was announced by P. A. Robinson. Construction was to begin at once with Thomas Fowler as contractor.
